Welcome & Announcements

Opening Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Passing of the Peace

Call to Worship:

One: We gather to give thanks to you, O Lord, with all our heart.

All: Let us come and worship God.

One: We will sing your praises before all creation, and rejoice in your steadfast love.

All: Let us come and worship God.

One: You have created us O Lord, and made us for yourself.

All: Let us come and worship God.

One: In you we become everything you have made us to be.

All: Let us come and worship God.

Psalm 138

The Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper

Our communion table is open to all who wish to receive, regardless of church membership or affiliation. We welcome all ages to receive communion today and leave the decision to parents at what age their children should participate.

Communion Hymn

Prayer of Confession:

O God of compassion, if you kept a record of our sins, who could stand? We come before you with our brokenness and our wounds for all to see. We bring our anger, our bitterness, our unwholesome talk, and our deceitfulness. We try to do good, but sometimes fail. Keep your promise to forgive us when we confess to you completely. Amen.

As a caring and welcoming community, using the Bible as a resource and the teachings of Jesus as our guide, we joyfully welcome everyone into our Christian community, regardless of race, ethnicity, class, age, mental status, family structure, physical or mental ability, religious background or theological perspective, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression. As Christian disciples, we invite all to share in the life, leadership, ministry, worship, sacraments, blessings and joys of our congregation.
